A death is also the beginning of the post-death experience - a funeral, cremation, donation to science, burial at sea, shot into space, a natural burial.you have options that you may not be aware of. Many people are opting for a non-traditional post-death activity. While the traditional funeral service will always be available, today s cultural norms are no longer restricted to a service, burial, marker and flowers. Learn what other ways there are to honor a life lived, to remember the person in a way that typifies their life. Explore music and reading options. Learn about alternatives to caskets and vaults. The key is to research and learn what a funeral can be and plan.plan.plan for the service you want. You only die once - make your exit special - make it your own.
