The Magical Kaleidoscope (Paperback)

By Thom Cherney

Thom Chereny, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Magical Kaleidoscope is a childrens book about an enchanted place in a lush green woodland where strange, magical things happen and where the life of every living creature seems to matter. A place where birds not only sing, they speak as well. A place where humans and forest creatures can live in peace and harmony; a place tucked away in the twylight between daylight and dark, where wonderous things happen. This magical woodland is not so very far from here, but it s not so very near either. Some say this place is other worldly and, in some respects, it is. Nesteled in this forest is a community of homeless people known as The Others Far removed from the frantic pace of the outside world, it is a refuge where reality is not merely different from our own, but of an entirely different order. Now, I m not altogether sure where the others came from or how they managed to settle and remain unnoticed throughout the years. One day, while walking, I descovered their Tent City...
