Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Link, Vol. 6: May, 1948 Foster Davidoff (They Lived As One, page 3) served with the Frying Tigers in China during the war, was awarded the Breast Order Yun Hui by the Chinese Government, and in 1947 accepted a commission in the Regular Army. Captain Davidoff is a native of Trenton, N. J., is thirty years old and very strongly opinionated about the subject his article covers. He wrote extensively on military subjects during the war for most service magazines and many eastern newspapers. At present he is working on a war novel which he anticipates will be ready for publication by this time in 1949. Josh M.Drake, Jr. (Excitement, Adventure and Stuff Like That, page 6) was hit in 22 places by a Jap shell while serving with the 25th Division in the Philippines. He lost his left arm and two fingers from his right hand, but he considers himself lucky just to be alive. Although he was once told by an English teacher that he was wasting his time trying to write, he began doing just this while recuperating in Army hospitals. He and his wife saved the money earned from his writing for six months and then took a two weeks vacation at Colorado Springs. Some of this writing money is also being saved to send their daughter to college 14 or 15 years from now. C. J. Papara (The Marines Still Mop Up, page 9) comes from Racine, Wisconsin, is a graduate of the University 2 of Wisconsin and is presently on the editorial staff of the Rhinelander (Wise.) Daily News. Here is another contributor who is a veteran. Mr....
