Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in.In his first book, Could Be the One, G. O. Roxx provocatively captivates his readers in this charming and enticing tale about one mans search to find true love again, and the bazaar secret that presents a huge moral dilemma. Rick Waller believes he has finally found the love of his life. What he will soon learn is that his beloved Anna has a secret; one that she herself is unaware of. In 1985, Rick Waller and Gerry Stevens were in love. He was an All-California high school football star. She was a psychology major working on her PhD. Their high school courtship was effortless, but marriage during their youthful college years always seemed to be a struggle and ultimately ended in divorce. Shortly thereafter, Gerry would move to Texas with her parents. Rick would never see her again. Often misunderstood by his friends and colleagues, Ricks lifelong search to fill Gerrys shoes eventually leads him to Anna, a beautiful young attorney who captures his heart from the very moment they meet. She Could Be the One, but...
