Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Ministry We Need: Three Inaugural Discourses, Delivered at Auburn, June 18, 1835 The following discourses, published by request of the Prudential Committee, were delivered on occasion of inducting the Professor of Sacred Rhetoric And Pastoral Theology in the Auburn Theological Seminary. The public exercises were ordered by the Board of Commissioners, to whom appertains the general superintendence of the Institution; who elect all the Officers, Professors, Tutors, Trustees, and others entrusted with the immediate administration of its concerns. The sermon and the charge were delivered by the brethren respectively and regularly designated to the service; who have kindly consented, not without some reluctation at the unexpected request, to submit their manuscripts for publication.
