Deborah Jane Dickson, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Deborah Raku is a psychic medium, a Reiki Master Teacher, and a Reconnective Healing Practitioner with an energy healing practice that involves the help of spirit guides and masters. Deborah is not a turban-wearing psychic with the ability to predict the future. Instead, she describes her gifts by saying that she simply has great insight into the present. She was not born this way. Forty years ago she was a computer programmer with a skeptical interest in the metaphysical. That interest led to a decades-long meditation practice, a growing ability to listen to the intuitive voice, a premonition dream about a teacher she met a few days later, an energy blast in Sedona that set her on a healing path, a channeled journal that helped her navigate a painful heartbreak, a memory of a life between lives, and an illuminating journey to see John of God. Deborah is convinced from her experiences that these abilities are available to us all - it is only a matter of beginning to listen. This memoir is an account of how she slowly changed, as a result of tuning in to her intuition, into someone whose mission now is to help others connect with the deeper parts of themselves. In the book she gives practical examples of how meditation can help to open you up to this inner voice and how to recognize it. She gives advice on how to start a journal tapping into that voice and shows how it can help, comfort, and guide you when you most need it. She also gives examples from her energy healing practice that demonstrate how this work can alter lives. Each...
