If you shall be pleased to like what we say herein, probably we will call again after our Family Reunion of two years hence. To most of you, this will be an initial pamphlet; but there has been one previous effort of this sort in our family. After the first Brigham Reunion, which was held in Chicago during the World s Fair, Dr. B. A. R. Brigham (who was then the Historian of our clan) issued a published account of that gathering, which met with hearty approval and appreciation from all who were privileged to receive a copy. (It was the proposition, that all who should join the Association then being formed would receive a copy of the proceedings gratis. For my own poor part, to help along what seemed to be a very deserving labor...
