Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Kingston Medical Quarterly, Vol. 7 During the past session there were 204. Four years ago the building occupied by the Faculty was found to be inadequate for the purposes of a Medical School, both as to its size and its equipment. The Faculty determined to remedy those defects. At a cost of about $12,000.00 they increased the size of the building and equipped the necessary laboratories. It was then thought that all had been dono in this direction that would require to be done for many years. However the growth of the institution has been so rapid that the Faculty now finds itself face to face with the sanie difficulty, lack of space and laboratory accomniodation. The Board of Trustees of the University recognizing the good work being done by the Medical Faculty and realizing that this side of the University is a strength to the whole institution, has decided to come to the assistance of the Faculty and give them the required increased accommodation. Next session the classes in Biology. Physiology and Histology will be conducted in the class rooms and laboratories in the old Arts building. This arrangement will materially relieve the congestion in the Medical building, and will enable the Faculty to provide better laboratory facilities for the classes in Pathology, Bacteriology and Pharmacy. At the Convocation Sir Sandford Fleming took the chair and called upon Rev. M. Macgillivray, who opened the proceedings with prayer. The Chancellor then gave a short address reviewing the work of the Medical Faculty during the session just closing. The scholarships and prizes were then presented to the winners by various members of the Faculty. The successful...
