Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My soul one will find family, music and poetry. All of my life, I have loved poetry. I ve been writing since I was thirteen years old however over the past few years I have been honest and bold enough to fully express my artist side. I have learned that I truly enjoy expressing this side of me more than I knew. I also have realized that I am capable of doing great things. GOD has given me the power to move forward and believe in myself with the passion to pursue my dreams and endeavors. Written words, processing thoughts in any place at any time on small pieces of paper, a napkin or a brown paper bag, has taken me to a place where I now understand that my thoughts in written form are so much more powerful than just lingering in my head. Finding the right place, space and time to connect all of the dots have brought me to a place to share my inner most thoughts, wishes, desires, dreams, downturns, but more importantly my lessons learned. My passion for music and how powerful the lyrics of a song can rock my soul has brought me here to share Lyrical Life Cycles. As I continue to move forward into this unknown land, it brings me great pleasure to share my journey with you. There s a Sensual Beat, and Erotic Treat, and those moments of Thinking Deep. I also want to give others the opportunity to express their work so I have included a few guest poets. Without expression, how can we fully communicate? We all have these elements in us; when sometimes we...
