Johnson, Business Manager University Quarterly A Record of University Life and Work Vol. II JULY. 1902 No. 3 THE VANDERBILT QUARTERLY AND THE ALUMNI. In the account of the business meeting of the Alumni Association it will be noted that the Association has by formal action made the Vanderbilt Quarterly its official organ. This action is a testimonial of the fact that the publication is achieving one of the prime objects of its existence--that is, it is bringing the University and the alumni in closer touch. When the magazine was planned it was intended to make it fill a twofold office: first to serve as a record of the events of Vanderbilt life; and, secondly, to acquaint the alumni and friends of the institution with its condition and progress. That it has admirably served its first purpose was evident from its first number,...
