She ll Be Home in the Springtime: The Story of a Mother, a Daughter and Asperger s (Paperback)

By MS Lyn Elizabeth Ujlaky

Flynn Park Street Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At two weeks old, sweet-natured and beguiling Cait made her entry into the hearts of her adoptive family. By age two, things had changed. She had become a non-communicative clockwork toy that never ran down. Even after the pediatrician s dismissal of her concerns, Cait s mother pleaded, Please tell me what s wrong with my daughter. Nothing was easy. Simple routines, like grocery shopping, became a war zone of wills as unwanted items headed for the checkout. Town ski sales, meant to be fun family outings, became crushing disappointments for an older sibling having to tolerate yet another one of her younger sister s meltdowns. Cait challenged everything her mother knew about raising a child. Crowded places and transitions confounded her. Like the Great Wall of China, school stretched out ahead for the next twelve years, yet it was hard to imagine Cait surviving even Kindergarten. Her mother, now divorced, was hopeful that the special services finally in place would make a difference. But Cait remained the square peg, never quite fitting in. It...

Reviews

An exceptional ebook along with the typeface employed was intriguing to see. It really is simplistic but surprises within the fifty percent of the ebook. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
