But could he be too dangerous for Mary?Mary s father was in trouble, and it ended up killing him. He left Mary alone, with no answers and too many questions.James Poole arrives at her home, and immediately sees that she s sultry, and too damn hard to stay away from. Could his attraction to her prove fatal?Mary refuses to trust him, but that doesn t stop her from teasing him mercilessly. He sees her basically undressed, and she seems unphased by it.At the same time, she finds herself thinking of him. Constantly. He does good work, and he makes her feel interesting, exciting emotions.He s handsome, yes, but he s more fit for the war than for accounting. And who would hire someone just out of university?Was he sent to murder her, too? Or could he be the key to unravelling the whole conspiracy?Will Mary let her desire get the better of her? Will she let him explore every secret part of her body? Could James thoroughly satisfy her, and leave her panting and desperate for more?.
