Talks about Art (Paperback)

By William Morris Hunt

Peruse Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .New reformatted edition (not low-quality scans of an old book) which includes a biography of William Morris Hunt and 18 b/w illustrations of his art not found in earlier editions. Talks About Art presents a compilation of quotes from William Morris Hunt s inspirational advice to his art students, emphasizing a painterly technique with visible brushwork, using values for the modelling of form, and the importance of the rough sketch and working from memory. Very well received when first published in 1878, the format of using snippets of inspirational advice used in Talks About Art was later employed with great success in Robert Henri s book The Art Spirit, and Charles Hawthorne s book Hawthorne on Painting. Out of print for several decades, Talks About Art deserves to be returned to its rightful place on every aspiring artist s book shelf next to these later books which emulated it. This new Peruse Press edition also includes a biography of William Morris Hunt written by Edward Waldo Emerson, the son of the eminent American philosopher, Ralph Waldo Emerson...
