T is, I assure you, the greatest joy to me to hear the happy turn which, by the grace of God, you have been enabled to take; and I sincerely beg of God to increase and strengthen you more and more in the paths of righteousness and peace: but remember, that true and vital religion must be built on this foundation, viz. a sull conviction of our absolute incapacity to help ourselves, and the all-sufficiency of our Redeemer. I am delighted that you have bought Mr. Laws Spirit of Prayer; though there are in this book some speculative errors, yet I doubt not but you will receive great benefit from the many excellent things there are in it. I wish I could fee you often; but as that cannot be, if at your leisure hours hours you will...
